

CH BELAIR MONANGE 2019

1e Grand Cru Classé

SAINT-EMILION

/ Per fles min. 12 flessen

Vinous – Antonio Galloni – 95-96/100

The 2019 Bélair-Monange is classy, polished and elegant. In recent years Bélair-Monange has come across as a bit pushed in terms of ripeness, but the 2019 impresses with its sublime balance. Silky, racy and inviting, Bélair-Monange has so much to offer. It is wine that makes its case with finesse more than power. Christian Moueix chuckles that thirty years ago he was criticized for picking too early, but today it is the exact opposite.

The Wine Advocate – 96-98/100

Deep garnet-purple in color, the 2019 Belair Monange comes sashaying out of the glass with a graceful hair-toss of fragrant red roses, cinnamon stick, cardamom and cumin seed notes over a core of Morello cherries, dark chocolate, wild blueberries and blackberry pie plus a touch of pencil shavings. The medium to full-bodied palate is just scrumptious, offering layers of perfumed black fruits and bright floral sparks, framed by exquisitely ripe, satiny tannins and an invigorating line of freshness, finishing on a lingering aniseed note.

J.M. Quarin – 95/100

Couleur sombre, intense et pourpre. Nez moyennement aromatique, mais fin, pur, mûr et subtil. Délicat en entrée de bouche et immédiatement savoureux, très aromatique, avec de la présence au milieu, le vin glisse jusqu'en finale sur une bonne longueur savoureuse, sans aucune austérité. Assemblage : 98 % merlot, 2 % cabernet franc. 2027 – 2055.
