Vinous – Neil Martin – 89/100

The 2019 Citran has a lively nose, not complex but offering ample black fruit, wild mint and light touches of orange rind. The palate is medium-bodied with a slightly hard entry. This is a stocky Haut-Médoc, a little drier than its peers, delivering plenty of grip and an almost briny finish. It needs knitting together and some of its rough edges smoothed out, but that might come with time.

The Wine Advocate – Robert Parker – 88-90/100

Deep garnet-purple in color, the 2019 Citran sashays out of the glass with gorgeous notions of chocolate-covered cherries, blackcurrant pastilles and black raspberries plus suggestions of cinnamon stick, red roses and pencil shavings with a waft of wild thyme. Medium-bodied, the palate delivers mouth-filling, ripe black berry flavors with amazing tension and nice, ripe, grainy tannins, finishing with a peppery kick.
