

CH LA SERRE 2018

Grand Cru Classé

SAINT-EMILION

/ Per fles min. 12 flessen

Robert Parker – The Wine Advocate – 89-91/100

The 2018 La Serre is a blend of 80% Merlot and 20% Cabernet Franc. Medium to deep garnet-purple colored, it offers up seductive scents of baked blackberries, blueberry tart and warm plums with nuances of black raspberries, oolong tea and cloves plus a touch of mincemeat pie. The medium-bodied palate is soft and plush with background freshness supporting the berry preserves flavors, finishing with a peppery kick.

Wine Spectator – 92-95/100

Ripe, open and very enticing, with lots of intertwined blueberry, boysenberry and plum compote flavors, carried by licorice threads and backed by a polished finish.
