Vinous – Neil Martin – 90-92/100

The 2023 Petit Bocq has a composed bouquet of black fruit laced with tobacco and pencil box scents, nicely focused with decent levels of concentration. These are charming aromatics. The palate is medium-bodied with a fresh entry and quite juicy with blueberry-tinged black fruit. Perhaps it's just missing some terroir expression on the finish, but otherwise, this should age well in bottle.
